

Aberdeen Forum & Social Impacts Workshop

At the forum we will welcome members from across Aberdeen and the wider North-East as well as other stakeholders. The aims of this forum are:

- To network with your peers
- To share your news and project updates
- To hear strategic updates from Circular Communities Scotland and other circular stakeholders
- To participate in a workshop around measuring your social impact

Weds 1st October 2025

Time: 1:30pm – 4:00pm

Venue: Greyhope Bay Centre, Torry Battery, Greyhope Road, Aberdeen, AB11 8QX

AGENDA

- | | |
|------|--|
| 1.30 | Welcome & Introductions |
| 1.40 | Member Spotlights |
| 2.10 | NESCAN – Our Role in Your Community |
| 2.25 | Round Table Update: All Members Updates |
| 2.45 | Comfort Break |
| 3.00 | “Measuring Impact: Mapping the Social Value of Your Circular Projects”
The James Hutton Institute will lead this interactive workshop with the aim of helping people think about measuring and mapping the social impact of their circular projects. |
| 3.55 | Summing Up & Closing Remarks |
| 4.00 | Forum Close |

www.circularcommunities.scot // info@circularcommunities.scot